11 COUNCIL REPORTS

11.1 Adoption of Terms of Reference for CEO Employment Matters Committee

Governance and Integrity
ATTACHMENT

SUMMARY

The Local Government Act 2020 (the Act) sets out a number of requirements relating to the employment of a Chief Executive Officer (CEO), which includes the requirement for a Council to obtain independent professional advice in relation to the matters dealt within the Chief Executive Officer Employment and Remuneration Policy.

Council as its meeting on 13 December 2021 adopted its CEO Employment and Remuneration Policy ("Policy") which became effective on 1 January 2022.

Council currently has an Advisory Committee for the Review of the Chief Executive's Development. To progress Council's obligations under Section 45 of the Local Government Act 2020 a CEO Employment Matters Committee should be established to replace the former advisory committee. Terms of Reference has been drafted for adoption.

To give effect to the requirement that Council must obtain independent advice on CEO employment matters, Council will need to commence the recruitment of an independent advisor.

COUNCIL RESOLUTION

Moved by Cr Skilbeck, Seconded by Cr Munroe

That Council:

1. Formally establishes the Chief Executive Officer Employment Matters Committee.
2. Dissolves the Advisory Committee for the Review of the Chief Executive's Development.
3. Adopt the Terms of Reference for the Chief Executive Officer Employment Matters Committee, provided as Attachment 1.
4. Commence the process to recruit an independent advisor to the Chief Executive Officer Employment Matters Committee.

KEY MATTERS

In line with the staged implementation timelines of the new Local Government Act 2020, Council adopted its first CEO Employment and Remuneration Policy before the deadline of 31 December 2021.

11.3 State Government Social Housing Reform Package Withdrawn

Community Engagement and Development

SUMMARY

The State Government's Big Housing Build initiative was launched in November 2020, a $5.3 billion investment in social and affordable housing. Building on this initiative, the State Government announced on 17 February 2022 two new important changes:

- From July 2024, all newly built developments with three dwellings or more and three or more lot subdivisions will contribute 1.75 per cent of the as-if-complete project value to a Social Housing Growth Fund.
- Social housing properties will become exempt from paying rates, so they are treated similar to other public assets including public schools and hospitals.

The State Government subsequently withdrew from its proposed planning reform and social housing package on 1 March 2022.

Exempting tens of thousands of Victorian Government-owned dwellings from the need to pay rates for local services provided to their tenants by councils would have been a major and concerning development. Based on recent data, Whitehorse City Council would have likely experienced 1.2% rate revenue foregone after full implementation and the direct impact on Council was estimated to be $1.4 million per annum (increasing over time due to the annual rate cap).

Similarly, the Social and Affordable Housing Contribution would have created a range of complex planning and logistics issues including raising questions about how the money would be directed back to Whitehorse.

COUNCIL RESOLUTION

Moved by Cr Massoud, Seconded by Cr Munroe

That Council note the decision by State Government to withdraw its proposed Social and Affordable Housing contribution and exemption of social housing properties from paying rates.

CARRIED UNANIMOUSLY

KEY MATTERS

The Municipal Association of Victoria (MAV) has explored the financial impacts of a rate exemption for social housing dwellings in a 2021 issues paper. The report found that the rates exemption would have significant implications for local government, with an estimated $136.8 million per year in revenue lost to subsidise the funding of what has historically been a state government responsibility.

11.3
(cont)

In only 10 years the amount of rates foregone for councils would compound to a total estimated amount of $1.6 billion. This means local communities would miss out on $1.6 billion of investment in local services and infrastructure over the decade.

STRATEGIC ALIGNMENT

This report aligns with Strategic Direction 3 of the Council Plan, 'Our Diverse and Inclusive Community', specifically Objective 3.4 'Advocate for greater housing diversity including affordable and social housing'.

Policy

Whitehorse City Council recognises that housing is a human right for every person and that social housing is core infrastructure that can strengthen communities. Council's commitment to affordable housing is demonstrated through its Whitehorse Affordable Housing Policy, its membership in the Eastern Affordable Housing Alliance and membership in the Regional Local Government Homelessness and Social Housing Charter Group, which regularly advocates for increased investment by government and non-government stakeholders in social and affordable dwellings in the region.

BACKGROUND

The State Government's Big Housing Build initiative was launched in November 2020, a $5.3 billion investment in social and affordable housing, with a commitment to deliver over 12,000 new dwellings including 9,300 new social housing dwellings and replacing 1,100 existing dwellings, to boost total social housing supply by 10%. Building on this initiative, the State Government announced on 17 February 2022 two new important changes:

- From July 2024, all newly built developments with three dwellings or more and three or more lot subdivisions will contribute 1.75 per cent of the as-if-complete project value to a Social Housing Growth Fund.
- Social housing properties will become exempt from paying rates, so they are treated similar to other public assets including public schools and hospitals. The rates reform will be phased in over four years from July 2023 and will only apply to social housing properties.

The State Government subsequently decided on 1 March 2022 to withdraw from its proposed planning reform and social housing package, specifically the exemption of social housing properties from paying rates and introduction of a new social and affordable housing contribution (SAHC).

11.3
(cont)

SUPPORTING REPORT DETAILS

Legislative and Risk Implications

There are no legal or risk implications arising from the recommendation contained in this report.

Equity, Inclusion, and Human Rights Considerations

In developing this report to Council, the subject matter has been considered in accordance with the requirements of the Charter of Human Rights and Responsibilities Act 2006. It is considered that the subject matter does not raise any human rights issues.

Community Engagement

There was very little engagement with the Local Government sector about the SAHC and rates exemption, its impact on Councils, ratepayers, residents and businesses. Such a decision should not be taken unilaterally without consultation with councils and their communities.

The Eastern Region Group of Councils (ERG) raised concerns on behalf of eastern metropolitan region Councils, and the Municipal Association of Victoria also expressed their opposition to blanket imposition of rates exemptions for social and affordable housing and sought clarification about the proposal and engagement with the Victorian government repeatedly during 2021.

Importantly there was no discussion between State Government and Whitehorse City Council about providing compensation to Council for providing the necessary community services for our municipality under the new rate exceptions.

Financial and Resource Implications

In Whitehorse, there were 1,617 social housing dwellings in 2020. Of these, 1,403 were public housing owned and operated by the Department of Families, Fairness and Housing (DFFH), and 16,827 dwellings owned and operated by community housing providers.

If all social housing properties in Whitehorse became exempt from council rates, based on recent data Whitehorse City Council would have likely experienced 1.2% rate revenue foregone after full implementation. The direct impact on Whitehorse City Council was estimated to be $1.4 million per annum. This figure would have increased over time, with the Minister for Local Government increasing the annual rate cap thereby escalating the annualised rate revenue loss.

Innovation and Continuous Improvement

There are no Innovation and Continuous Improvement matters arising from the recommendation contained in this report.

11.3
(cont)

Collaboration

This report was developed in collaboration between the Community Engagement & Development Department, Finance & Corporate Reporting and Planning & Development.

Discussion and Options

Social housing properties being exempt from paying rates

Exempting all social housing from paying rates would mean ratepayers (including people who are also experiencing poverty), need to provide additional millions of dollars each year to subsidise a state government service which delivers benefits to all residents and taxpayers across Victoria's 79 council areas or experience decreased levels of local services.

From an equity standpoint, exempting social housing means that ratepayers in municipalities where there is social housing will pay more to subsidise social housing, compared to other taxpayers and residents in areas where there is less social housing.

Questions remain then about how Council would provide additional services that tenants in social housing require from their councils, particularly with the scale of new social housing that is being created through the Big Housing Build over the next four years. For example, how would all social housing dwellings be serviced, such as paying for waste management services?

Social and Affordable Housing Contribution (SAHC)

A requirement for all newly built developments with three dwellings or more and three or more lot subdivisions to contribute 1.75 per cent of the as-if-complete project value to the Social Housing Growth Fund would deliver a more certain framework than the voluntary, negotiated framework the industry works with now. However, it raises a few questions for consideration, such as how would the State Government ensure the Social Housing Growth Fund is redirected into the communities that contributed to its growth?

The state government already collects the Metropolitan Planning Levy for all developments over $1,107,000, however it is unclear how this money is directed back to Whitehorse (or any council) due to the lack of transparency and accountability. Would there be flexibility in the form of contributions to ensure the right housing in the right places (for example, equivalent housing either gifted to a register housing organisation or offered at a discounted rent)? Such a fund must be collected by the State Revenue Office with transparent and accountable outcomes for its allocation at a municipal level.

(cont)

Conflict of Interest

The Local Government Act 2020 requires members of Council staff, and persons engaged under contract to provide advice to Council, to disclose any direct or indirect interest in a matter to which the advice relates.

Council officers involved in the preparation of this report have no conflict of interest in this matter.

Conclusion

The decision to exempt tens of thousands of Victorian Government-owned dwellings from the need to pay rates for local services provided to their tenants by councils would have been a major and concerning development, with a direct impact on Council of $1.4 million per annum (increasing over time due to the annual rate cap).

Similarly, the Social and Affordable Housing Contribution would have created a range of complex planning and logistics issues including raising questions about how the money would be directed back to Whitehorse.

With the State Government now withdrawing from its planning reform package, Council officers will continue to seek further opportunities to engage with State Government on these matters and explore other possibilities to increase the supply of social and affordable housing in the municipality.
